PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

---

WigiLabs

BackEnd Developer

Argentina, Remote

May 2025 – Present

- Developed the “Smart Sizing” feature, which uses personnel body measurements to suggest the appropriate clothing size for each garment. Built using Java with Spring Boot.
- Maintained and updated the database, including garments, sizes, images stored in S3, and personnel information. Used MySQL as the database.
- Currently working on migrating the system to a microservices architecture using AWS Lambda.

Ai Monkey - Wellness App Project

FullStack Developer

Argentina, Remote

October 2024 – January 2025

- Implemented backend integrations using NestJs, linking educational content with sections on mental health, exercises, and symptom tracking.
- Contributed to backend architecture: modularization, reusable controllers, and sensitive data protection.

Ai Monkey - Social App Project

FullStack Developer

Argentina, Remote

Feb 2024 – October 2024

- Developed a collaborative web app to create, share, and view multimedia memories (audio, text, video, images)
- Designed logic to handle user relationships (creator, guest, collaborator) with dynamic validations based on roles and context.
- Built the backend using Node.js and -MongoDB, with flexible and optimized schemas for collaborative content.

Ai Monkey - Ecommerce Platform Project

FullStack Developer

Argentina, Remote

June 2022 – February 2024

- Built a complete e-commerce system: product catalog, shopping cart, and payment gateway integrations (Affirm and Authorize.Net)
- Designed UI with React and Next.js, managed global state using Redux, and optimized for mobile devices.
- Developed backend using Node.js and Express; created RESTful APIs for managing products, orders, payment, and users
